

It's Exam Time!

Promotion Exams for the Autumn Term are coming up The week of November 8-14 (Monday through Sunday).

Promotion Exams are the tests where our students demonstrate the martial arts skills they have learned during this term, and will earn their advancement to their next belt rank.

The Promotion Exams will take place during normal lesson times throughout this week. Fundamentals and Honors students should have earned both your Bronze & Silver Achievement Stripes to be eligible for the Exam. Please plan to attend your "A" day lesson and "B" day lesson to complete your Promotion Exam.

Karate Tigers students should plan to attend at least one lesson to complete your Promotion Exam.

Should illness or other unforeseen circumstances prevent you from completing your exam during this week, we will have a special "Catch Up" week available Monday through Sunday, November 22-28. We will schedule special private sessions during this week to help you complete your Promotion Exam. Please contact our school should you need to complete your exam on this day.

Please register at the school if you plan to participate in the Promotion Exams. Please check with one of your instructors or Mr. Booker if you have any questions about your eligibility for the Exams.
